

WINEGARDNER AUDITORIUM GENERAL INFORMATION & AMENITIES

The Winegardner Auditorium is a banquet room located within the main museum building, featuring the Adler Pewter Collection and a selection of paintings from the Dixon's Permanent Collection. It includes a permanent wood stage with projector screen, projector, and podium with microphone; gallery access is included with rental (access times vary).

CAPACITY

Capacity is 250 guests; going over capacity may result in a fee to cover wear-and-tear on the venue. Capacity for common setups:

- 250 standing reception
 - 200 seated, theater-style
 - 75 seated, classroom-style
 - 120-150 seated, round tables (15, 60" round tables with 8-10 chairs each, leaving the stage free of tables)
-

AMENITIES

- 10 60" round tables
- 4 48" round tables
- 6 32" round low/seated height tables
- 10 32" round tall/standing height tables
- 6 8ft. long/rectangular tables
- 18 6ft. long/rectangular tables
- 180 Banquet chairs

Projector screen (built-in/non-moveable) + projector (HDMI connection via the podium; Mac users need adapters) + podium with wired microphone + lapel microphone

WiFi (Network name: DixonGardensGuest, Password: art2grow)

DIXON

GALLERY & GARDENS

WINEGARDNER AUDITORIUM

SCALE: 1/8" = 1'-0"

THIS LINE MUST MEASURE 1 1/2" OR
THIS SHEET HAS NOT BEEN PRINTED
TO SCALE